local News Happenings

The local news of the day

This Grove and vicinity is prepared for a wild big time Friday night. The dance will be given at Shady Dell.

Local News

Mabel White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. White, and wife of Leland White, was married Saturday at Shady Dell to another C. White of Rose. The couple are now at Rose.

The groom has a position with the Rose Light and Power company.

Local News Story

Yesterday is the regular "Teller night" at the Elks Club, and in observance of Leap Year, the arrangements made for the night's dancing party have been turned over to the Elks ladies. The affair will be held in the new hall, and some real novel stunts are being planned for the entertainment of the gentlemen.

Local Politics Go to Rose

About thirty members of Klamath Lodge No. 127, I. O. O. F., made the trip to Roseman Saturday night for the purpose of helping No. 143 dedicate their new home and to initiate them into the mysteries of the order. Owing to the shifted snow considerable difficulty was experienced in the trip, but comparatively good time was made, and every member of the party enjoyed the trip.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17.—The former senator is an added attraction on Christmas county farms.

"If you can't make out through a telephone," writes a farmer,

"politically pure tobacco comes out of the country ahead, and a tobacco liquid out the other."

This former wrote to District Attorney Hodges asking if it is a violation of the prohibition law for him to separate his older.

"It is," says Hodges.

WILL LOOK INTO BELGIUM CHARGE

DOVER WILL APPROVE COMMISSION TO PROBE CHARGES OF GENE
DE. REC. MARS AGAINST GERMAN SPYERS

By ROBERT WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

ROME, Jan. 17.—Gene Mars will appear a commission shortly to make an impartial investigation of the directly charges made against the German army by Belgium. This is the last result of the visit to the nation by Cardinal Mercier of Belgium. German Catholics are highly in favor of such an impartial inquiry.

They say that information they have received leads them to believe the war will continue at least that long.

FORD PARTY WILL STUDY FOR YEAR

LEADERS NOW ADMIT THAT SOME CONSIDERATION MUST BE GIVEN TO MATTER BEFORE DOVE
PLANS AGAIN

United Press Service

THE HAGUE, Jan. 17.—At least a year's study of conditions, etc., may be necessary before the Ford party gets "the boys out of the trenches," leaders of the expedition admitted today.

They say that information they have received leads them to believe the war will continue at least that long.

RUSS OFFENSIVE STARTS IN SOUTH

TURKISH TROOPS ARE FORCED BACK BY POWERFUL MUSCOVITE
ADVANCE—GRAND DUKE IS LEADING ATTACK

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 17.—The Turkish outposts in the Caucasus have been forced back on the main army's trenches before a powerful new Russian offensive. In this move, the war office admits, several miles of territory have been taken by the Russians.

The Russian forces are under the leadership of Grand Duke Nicholas. New artillery and equipment in the Muscovite lines is reported by spies.
